An Open Letter To Joe Citizen

Dear Citizens:

Well April is just around the corner and with April comes the Cancer Crusade. Last year the Ladies Auxiliary of the Canadian Legion undertook this campaign and through their good work over $500.00 was collected. This year the ladies are taking on the job again and we hope with everyone's co-operation to raise even more money.

Now we know that you are always getting "hit up" for this charity or that one and sometimes you feel that life is one big donation. But can you think of any cause more worthy than the fight against cancer? Someday soon, the research scientists will find the cure for this dread disease which took nearly 17,000 Canadians last year. And it is your yearly donation which helps pay for this research work.

Your dollar is also spent for education, for early cancer is often curable. Of the large number of people in Canada who died last year of cancer over 5,000 could have been saved if they had received medical attention in time. Over $45,000 was spent in Alberta last year on public and professional cancer education.

The cancer society has a steadily enlarging welfare program. The services include free cancer dressing service, nursing and home care for cancer sufferers, special diets and medications, transportation and other services designed to bring comfort to those suffering from cancer. Over $50,000 was spent on cancer welfare work in Alberta in 1952.

So for your own protection learn the Seven Danger Signals which may mean cancer. And for everyone's protection please give generously when one of the canvassers call on you. She is giving generously of her time, so please have your donation ready.

Let's do even better than we did last year.

Yours sincerely,

Fern Thompson.
(Campaign Chairman)

The Wednesday Night Club met at the home of Mrs. Theodora Piegrass Wednesday, for their usual evening of Rook. The prize for High Score went to Mrs. Sybil Vanderbilt, the Traveling Prize to Mrs. Thelma Turner while Mrs. Lorel Holt received the Consolation. Mrs. Irene Bowden was a special guest.

A lovely lunch was enjoyed by all.

Misses Barbara Fairbanks and Geraldine Kenney returned home on Tuesday from Provo where they have been attending the BYU.

Hospital Auxiliary Notes

The regular meeting of the Hospital Auxiliary was held on March 18th. at the home of Mrs. A. Ralph with Mrs. B. Galbraith as assistant hostess. 13 members and one visitor were present at the meeting.

Plans were discussed for our coming bazaar and luncheon and our annual membership drive which is to be held April 24th., from 3 p.m. in the Second Ward Church.

Mrs. Dorothea Roberts of the nominating committee was asked to choose a group of officers to be voted on at our annual election on April 15th.

Sewing was done by the following members under the direction of Lorella Holt and Doris Zobel: Joanne Zobel, Beth Walker, Nonavee Jones, Lenara Dalnard and Mabel Heninger. They mended 80 articles and made 11 new ones.

Ten visits were made to the Hospital by the Sick Visiting Committee.

Thanks go to Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Taylor for a rocker for the children ward. To the Japanese Anglican Association for a donation of $25, which will be applied on our next purchases for the Hospital.

The Financial Report was read by the Treasurer, Mrs. Idale Kenney.

Lunch was served by the hostesses.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerry Melchin entertained a number of friends recently at a St. Patrick's dinner party. After the delicious dinner the twenty-five guests played a few hands of Rook with Mr. and Mrs. Don Steed sharing the prize for High Score and Mrs. Arledge Hill received the Consolation prize.

Bill Rodeback Is Laid To Rest

They buried William W. Rodeback — and with his passing, passed a little more of the old west — the friendly west. As the mellow voice of the church organ filled the chapel of the Third Ward, more than one person thought of a kindness he had done.

The opening prayer was offered by President L. L. Palmer and the Third Ward Choir, conducted by Joe McLean with Emma Dahl at the organ, sang "Sometime We Will Understand" and while they were singing, relatives and friends tried to give the answers in their own way. Bishop Dahl, who conducted the funeral service, said "We have come today to pay respects to a respected citizen of our town; a man who was a friend to all, both young and old — who took time to do for others a kindly deed as he passed through this way". The first speaker, C. R. Wing who is President of the High Priests Quorum of which the deceased was a member, paid tribute to Mr. Rodeback as a dependable worker, and also spoke of the purpose of life as told in the Bible. "Hold My Hand" sung by Emma Dahl, Ruth Salmon and Gladys Holt preceded A. E. Palmer's remarks. He was a long time friend of Mr. Rodeback and held his friendship with him through the years in high esteem; and said he would carry the memory of him in the future.

Roi Stone rendered an organ solo, followed by President J. H. Walker who said that the town had lost a good citizen; a fine neighbor; and a willing church worker — if he took a position in the Church one could depend upon him fulfilling it to the best of his ability. He would be missed by all who knew him, but most of all by the younger people — from the small boys to the big boys, as he loved them all and spent his life working and playing with them. He was chosen as President of the first M.I.A. in the Second Ward when it was organized and in later years he again held the position when it became the Third Ward. Following Joe McLean's solo, "Going Home" Melvin King offered the Benediction.

Palbearers were life long friends, Wes McMullen, Andy Lund, Ray Depew, Orrin Turner, Redge Cooper and Elmo Christensen, while small boys from his neighborhood carried the many flowers to and from the Church. Neighborhood children, 'Pop's Pa's' as they were called, attended en masse. Another long time friend, Lief Erickson dedicated the grave.

William, better known as Bill, came to Raymond with the early settlers as a young man with his parents, from Cedar Fork, Utah where he was born nearly 66 years ago. Never a cowboy; he knew and loved good horse flesh. His horses were always of the best and he handled them in the manner of the Roman gladiators of old. With the passing of the horse age he retired to town and rented his farm to a tenant who works it with power machines.

The Rodebacks came to Raymond in 1902 when a fire-guard, guarded the prairie homes from the hazards of fire. He was one of the drivers of the fourteen teams which were used to plow the first long fire guard from Lethbridge South to the International Boundary Line.

As a young man he purchased land south of Raymond in the rolling hills of the Milk River country — land which he owned until his death. His college curriculum was the prairies where he learned the business of life. He was a man that if you met him in the morning, you felt good all day as he was always cheerful and had the ability to pass it on to others.

Friends in town will be sorry to learn that Alma Sommerfeldt's mother and step-father, Mr. and Mrs. Haas of Medicine Hat are patients in a Lethbridge hospital after undergoing operations.

Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Paxman motored to Barnwell on Monday to attend a Birthday dinner at the Earl Grieger home with Mrs. Greigor (Della) entertaining in honor of her husband.

Virginia and Carma were also guests enjoying the dinner and games.

Grant Spackman who is an Inspector for Pipelines of Canada with offices in Edmonton, recently returned from an extended trip covering Canada and the United States as far as the Gulf of Mexico. He was the official representative of that company at Conventions held at several points.

Mrs. Spackman and son and daughter spent a few days in town with Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Spackman while Grant was on the trip.

The weather was not so good last week-end and for a while it looked as though the big party planned by the Fourth Ward Elders would have to be postponed. Old Sol came out bright and warm on Monday though so the party was held for the Elders and their partners. A member of the Quorum Presidency greeted the guests at the door with a warm welcome and as soon as everyone was there President Roy Woolley invited them to be seated. A delicious fruit cocktail started the sumptuous chicken dinner off with the rest of the meal served buffet style. The ladies had the opportunity of waiting on their partners though when the dessert of pineapple ice-box cake was served.

A very interesting (un-rehearsed) program was dreamed up for the occasion by those masters of the hilarious — Howard Rasmussen and Jim Bridge. Featured entertainer on the fine program was "vun uf de poyz from de boloney — no colony". Didn't catch his name but it sounded something like Arledge Hill. Anyway he told of his experiences here in town. "Py Gollys" is was good — as was the whole evening.

The Second Ward enjoyed their anniversary party on Thursday with Mrs. Gehmlich in charge of the program. Mesdames Laura Watson, Gen Hawkins and Velma Bigelow rendered a vocal trio after which Mrs. Helen Atwood gave a reading, followed by a solo by Mrs. Darcelle Bullock. Mrs. Edda Brandley gave a history of the Relief Society after which Mrs. Marie Strong entertained with a piano solo and Mrs. Helen Piegrass sang a solo. The concluding number was a skit by Dora King and Jolayne Hill.

The candles on the beautiful birthday cake representing fifty years, were lit by Mrs. Woolley, an early president and by Mrs. Redd, who represented her mother, also an early president. Mrs. Rose Melchin had the honor of blowing them out. Mrs. Inga Shields and Mrs. Alice Christensen were in charge of the delicious lunch served.

Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Card have returned after visiting at the Coast for several weeks. On their way home they stopped in Calgary for a short visit with Mr. and Mrs. Booth Card.

Mrs. Colleen McClean is working temporarily at the dentists office in town.

The First Ward M Men and Gleaners met at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Walker Sunday evening at which time they heard a talk by Patriarch T. T. Mendenhall, followed by a tasty lunch.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Bridge and family were Sunday dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Bridge this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Meeks and Rex Meeks spent a few days in Calgary last week attending the Bull Sale.

The Laura Watson, Gen Hawkins and Velma Bigelow Trio were among the semi-finalists on last Thursday night's Benny Talent Hunt Program. P.S. They won the semi-finals.

What Happened At Council Meeting

STATUTORY MEETING

A Statutory meeting was held at the Town Hall at 8 p.m. Those present were Mayor Elect Frank R. Taylor and Councillors elect Bruce V. Galbraith and John L. Kenney and Councillors Wilde, Melchin, Salmon and Ralph.

Certificate of Returning Officer was read by W. L. Jones declaring Frank R. Taylor to be elected Mayor by acclamation and Bruce V. Galbraith and John L. Kenney to be elected Councillors by acclamation. These officers took the Oath of Office before W. L. Jones, Commissioner for Oaths.

The Mayor made the schedule of appointments of Deputy Mayors for the coming year.

The Mayor announced that the committees of the Council would be the same as last year.

The meeting was adjourned on motion of Councillor Wilde.

The regular meeting of the Council was held at the Town Hall at 8 p.m. Those present were Mayor F. R. Taylor and Councillors Wilde, Ralph, Salmon, Galbraith and Kenney.

The cash statement was read and accepted on motion of Councillor Ralph.

J. D. Hall and Della Woolf met the Council applying for a Cemetery grant of $300.00. Moved by Councillor Ralph that this matter be considered with the budget and that the farm land owned by the Town adjoining the Cemetery be leased by the Town and rents paid to the Town but that these rents be then turned over to the Cemetery committee and this committee manage the said farm land. Carried.

Councillor Wilde moved that Councillors Ralph, Salmon, Melchin, Galbraith and Kenney be appointed to constitute the Court of Revision and that the Court sit April 6th at 7 p.m.

Moved by Councillor Ralph that L. D. Watson be appointed auditor for 1953 at a salary of $250.00. Carried.

Moved by Councillor Galbraith that Mayor Taylor or Councillor Wilde be authorized to sign cheques etc. with the counter signature of W. L. Jones, Secretary-Treasurer. Carried.

Councillor Ralph moved that the Town's Liability Insurance be renewed if the same coverage could be obtained for $250. Carried.

It was reported that the Hospital owned a Resuscitator. Councillor Galbraith moved that the Fire Chief take up with the Hospital authorities the matter of making this available for Town emergencies and to familiarize himself with its use. Carried.

It was moved by Councillor Salmon that the Secretary apply to the Department of Education about the distribution of school requisition, for an adjustment between the Town and M. D. Sugar City. Carried.

An application for Paul Redd for a building permit was referred to the zoning committee on motion of Councillor Kenney. Carried.

It was moved by Councillor Galbraith that Councillor Robert Salmon be appointed Child Welfare Officer for the Town. Carried.

The first reading to the new license by-law was given on motion of Councillor Ralph, and second reading on motion of Councillor Kenney.

Councillor Kenney reported that his committee had investigated the need of additional street lights and recommended that lights be placed at Clifton corner, T. T. Mendenhall, E. L. Hudson and Doug's Street. Moved by Councillor Melchin that this committee check with Calgary Power as to the present location of lights and to see that lights are being maintained at these locations and to bring a report to the Council. Carried.

Cliff Williams met the Council regarding a dairy license and a full discussion regarding Dairy problems and local distribution. No decision was reached.

The Pay Roll was read and ordered paid on motion of Councillor Salmon.

The meeting adjourned on motion of Councillor Melchin. An additional meeting was to be arranged to complete unfinished business.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Thomson, Mr. and Mrs. Dee Rolison and Mrs. Lyle McLean motored over to Magrath on the 15th to be present for Mrs. Thomson's and Mrs. McLean's father, Bryan Mel-drum's seventy-fifth birthday.

His many friends in town will be interested to learn of the marriage of Jessie Minkler, R.N., of Edmonton, and more recently of Provo, to Harrison (Buddy) Palmer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Les Palmer. They were married in Nevada on March 14th and after a short honeymoon returned to Provo where Mrs. Palmer is nursing at the Utah Valley Hospital and Buddy is taking his Masters Degree in Anthropology at the BYU.

A Birthday Club met last Thursday at the home of Mrs. Lowell Court with Mrs. Maude Rolison assistant hostess, as well as Birthday honoree, Mrs. Ada Orgill was also honored on her birthday. An evening of sewing and visiting was enjoyed followed by the opening of the gifts and the serving of refreshments.

CARD OF THANKS

Mrs. Wm. W. Rodeback and family wish to thank the doctors and nurses of the Raymond Municipal Hospital, the pallbearers, those who furnished cars and those who sent flowers and cards of sympathy or helped in any way during their recent bereavement.

Pat Mitchell entertained at a Trouseau Shower last week in honor of Arlene Hudson, this week's bride. After the opening of her lovely gifts, contest games were played by Carma Paxman, Virginia Paxman, No'a Atwood, Mona Palmer, Colleen McClean, Colleen Christensen and of course, the guest of honor and the hostess.

A delightful lunch was served at the end of the evening.

The Facts About The Building

As most of our readers are aware—we made a rather large mistake in the article on the new recreation hall in the last issue. This was kindly brought to our attention by a friend who suggested we consult C. R. Wing for the facts. This we did and found that the new building will be 98 feet 3 inches by 198 feet 9 inches, overall measurements. The playing floor will be 84 by 110 with one court 50 by 94, and two practice courts along side. There will also be three large rooms, a stage, a kitchen, rest rooms, cloak rooms, powder room, lounge and shower rooms in the new building. The new recreation hall, with the third largest playing floor in the Church, will be 42 feet north of the Stake House and about 32 feet from the swimming pool.

C. R. Wing will be general superintendent with Bob Salmon and Joe Kirkham as construction superintendents. As much local help will be used as possible on the job that will get under way as soon as weather permits and will be completed sometime within the next year.

Mrs. Edda Brandley was hostess to the Ladies Literary Club this week when they met to enjoy the review given by Mrs. Fanny Walker of the true story of a little boy born without arms. Special guests were Mesdames Helen Gruenwald of Coaldale, Dot Witbeck, Dorothy Dahl, Mabel Heninger, Honnie Heninger, Alice Low of Ottawa, Ethel Litchfield, Marjory Mulholland of Clareholm, and Tilly Wilde of Wellington.

Mrs. Ethel Jacobs, joint hostess, assisted with the serving of a delightful lunch.

Mrs. Mildred Jensen entertained the Factory Girls Club this week at her home with Mrs. Laura Nelson a special guest. A tasty lunch concluded another pleasant evening of chatting and sewing.

Mr. and Mrs. Evan Jensen were hosts to their Study Class Sunday evening at which Mrs. Lois Heggie presented the interesting lesson, followed by the serving of a delicious lunch.

Arlene Hudson Honored At Shower

Beautiful prelude music was played by Maybelle Anderson and Emma Dahl Thursday evening as the guests were gathering at the Stake House to honor Arlene Hudson at a Miscellaneous Shower. The guests were greeted at the door by Mrs. Zettella Taylor and Mrs. Phoebe Dahl while Pat Mitchell presided at the Guest Book. Mrs. Zina Anderson and Mrs. Ruth Salmon accepted and arranged the lovely gifts.

In the receiving line were Mrs. Hudson, Arlene, and Golden Harker.

Betsy Shaw, Ida Longbotham and Jean Cooper ushered the guests into the dining room which was decorated by tiers of pink and white streamers adorned with white lilies. The lunch was served at little tables by Carma and Virginia Paxman, Bernice Dahl and Kay Stone, Mesdames LaFern Harker, Irene Minton, Thelma Turner, Ida Longbotham, Rose Hudson and Ruth Kessler prepared the lunch.

Interesting bits of the story of Arlene's life were unfolded as Mrs. Viola Wing very capably emceed the program. Gen Hawkins, Laura Watson and Velma Bigelow sang "L'Amour Toujours Lamour" after which Barbara Harker of Magrath gave an original reading about Arlene, followed by a piano duet by Maybelle Anderson and Emma Dahl. Ida Ann Longbotham sang "Some time" and "Temple of Our Father" followed by the Music Clubs rendition of "Woman In The Shoe" and "Neopolitan Night", after which "Because Of You" and "Let's Dance" a parody on Chopsticks, was sung by Beth Walker, Dorothy Nelson and Lavonne Dahl. "Under the Spreading Chestnut Tree", a humorous reading was given by Mrs. Zettella Taylor at the special request of the honoree, Mona Palmer sang a solo after which Gen. Laura and Velma concluded the program by singing "You're In Love". Bishop Hicken closed with prayer.

Little Dar'yn McLean, the year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack McLean suffered a painful accident Tuesday evening when a door was accidentally slammed on her finger nearly severing it. Stitches were put in and by the next day she didn't seem to feel any worse for the accident.

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Wing, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Redd and Mr. and Mrs. Louis Brandley were guests in Stirling at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Brandley on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Winters and family braved the storm Friday morning to make a business trip to Cardston. Needless to say they were very happy when they got back home.

Sandy Rolison has accepted a position as Forest Ranger at Waterton Park for the summer. He will be starting his duties the first of April and will be joined by his wife and children at the completion of the school term.

Robert Holmes Is Member Of Panel On Religion

Keen interest in the doctrines of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints was manifest among the students and faculty of Rutgers University recently because of a Mormon student's expression of his beliefs.

Robert Holmes, a student at Rutgers, as a member of a panel discussing religious beliefs, explained the tenets of the religion which he espoused. Other members of the panel included, Miss Bromell, a Quaker; Mr. Chaudray, a Hindu from Calcutta; and Mr. Oki, a Buddhist from Tokyo.

Elder Holmes is a Research Fellow in the Sol's Department of Rutgers University. He received his Bachelor of Science degree at Brigham Young University in 1952. He filled a mission for the Church to New Zealand in 1948 to 1950. He is at present a member of the New Jersey District Presidency of Eastern States Mission, and is in charge of local missionary work there.

BORN TO

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Brandley, a girl, March 21.

An evening of visiting, reminiscing and looking at pictures, some as far back as 1916, was enjoyed by many old friends at the home of Mrs. Honnie Heninger on Wednesday with Mesdames Kate Card, Retta Walton, Tilly Wilde and Vanda Grey assistant hostesses. A very delectable buffet lunch was served to the guests, Mesdames May Tollestrup, Mary H. Rodeback, Florelle Palmer, Fanny Walker, Mabel Heninger, Emma Dahl, Lavern Anderson, Marva Nalder, Emma Redd, Madge Fairbanks, Clara Rolfson, Ruth Salmon, Elizabeth King, Mary S. Rodeback, and Roxie Robbins, Edith Stevens, Emma Rose, Blanche Ellars, Cora Crost, Thelma Rensing, Belle Erickson, all of Salt Lake, and Mame Roberts and Sue Clemis of Lethbridge, Ruby Erickson of Stirling, and Jan Heninger.

The training for loyal and intelligent citizens begins at home. Said Henry Ward Beecher, "The real democratic idea is, not that every man shall be on a level with every other, but that every one shall have liberty without hindrance, to be what God made him".

Mr. and Mrs. Golden Snow left on Thursday for Salt Lake to attend Conference, travelling by way of Spokane where they visited Mrs. Snow's brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Lybbert. At Lebanon, Oregon they plan to visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Glen (nee Alice Snow) Jensen where they will meet Gordon who has completed his mission in the Californian Field; then on to Grant's Pass, Oregon to visit missionary friends of Gordon's. After visiting in Los Angeles they will drive on to Provo where they will be guests at the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Hutchinson (Dureen).

Mr. and Mrs. Garth (Donna) Wright of Brooks and Mary Snow accompanied them to a family re-union which was held in Provo.

YOUR GOVERNMENT

- by donald a. smith

EDMONTON — The long-awaited (at least to some people's) answers to the question, "What will the government do with the liquor laws?" were presented to the Alberta legislature last week, when Hon. Lucien Maynard, attorney-general, introduced a bill to amend the Liquor Control Act. Although the present act is to be entirely replaced by the new one, there are few radical changes. No cocktail bars. No mixed drinking in Edmonton and Calgary.

One of the major changes is the authority given to the Liquor Control Board to require hotels to maintain food facilities in beer parlors. It is understood that the board probably will put this requirement into effect, after the act goes into effect, July 1.

Although opposition members hurled charges at the government, for not releasing the recommendations of the government's special committee on liquor, which met last year, Premier Manning and Mr. Maynard stood their ground stating that as the committee was a government-established body, there is no obligation to reveal the recommendations.

So it went, with Liberal Leader J. Harper Prowse and his party colleague H. J. MacDonald, of Calgary, trying to find out what the recommendations were by coming in the back door. Did the committee recommend cocktail bars? Did it recommend mixed drinking and liquor with meals? All the questions went unanswered.

Finally after an hour and a half the bill was read the first time, with promises of more hot exchanges when it was presented for second and third reading this week.

The third night sitting of the present legislature saw Premier Manning close the debate on his budget speech, which had raged back and forth across the house for about two weeks. He denied many charges which had been made by opposition members, chiefly the contention that the government is not providing enough financial aid for the municipalities.

He said in four years the government provided municipalities and school districts with $171,000,000 in direct assistance and grants. He pointed out this was only $3,000,000 less than the total budget before the house.

The speaking record for the session was shattered (it probably won't be equalled this year) by Hon. Gordon Taylor, minister of highways, (Drumheller), when he gave a three-hour-15-minute discourse over four days on the province's highway situation. He covered the situation from Waterton Lakes to the Peace River, stating that, while construction may be slow in some cases, the highways are being built from bottom to top to conform to modern standards. The minister's address was his way of replying to opposition contentions in previous years, that cabinet ministers were not reporting fully the work of their departments.

A resolution to be sent to the federal government in connection with health services was approved by the legislature. It asks the proposals made by the federal government in 1946 be implemented. It would mean federal financing of up to 60 per cent of the cost of health services instituted by the province. The resolution passed by the house was substituted for one proposed by CCF Leader Elmer E. Roper, who asked for aid based on recommendations of the Alberta health survey committee. Hon. Dr. W. W. Cross, minister of health, rejected it on grounds that it would mean a compulsory per capita tax. The CCF leader called it "quibbling" and expressed satisfaction with the amendment.

ALSO: The house approved a $65,800 appropriation for European flood relief. . . N. W. Dushenski (CCF-Wellington) suggested the government's position is liquid because so much of its revenue is from oil and liquor. . . C. S. Sayers (SC-Camrose) believes the farmer's position is being painted too rosy by a lot of people. He told the house the farm population is on the decline and so is farm income, in relation to increasing prices on consumer goods. . . St. Patrick's Day, March 17, was observed, as the two women members, Mrs. C. R. Wood, Stony Plain, and Mrs. Wilkinson, Calgary, received green corsages and Industries and Labour Minister J. L. Robinson greeting cards, a clay pipe and two shillelaghs.

Miss Valerie Peterson who recently came to Alberta from New Zealand, was the guest of Miss Virginia Paxman at the D. L. Paxman home over the week-end.

Notes From Your District Home Economist

MISS LILA ENGBERG

YOUR SEWING CENTER

Sewing is a necessity in the home. Mending, repairing, altering and making clothes can be a real help to your pocket-book and appearance if done effectively. The kitchen in the home is often well arranged, but the sewing supplies and equipment are kept all over the house. You can have a simple sewing set-up in any room to help you organize your work. Here is a suggestion from the U.S. Department of Agriculture.

A U-shape is good. The sewing machine takes the centre of the U, with the cutting surface on the right and the surface for pressing on the left. The sewing supplies may be kept in drawers underneath these working swivel office chair, she can sit in the surfaces. If the seamstress has an old middle and turn from one part of her sewing job to the next without getting up to walk around.

For the cutting centre on the right you could use an old flat top desk or a refinished wash-stand. For pressing you may not need a full size ironing board. A cabinet with a padded top or a sleeve board may meet your needs. If you do want an ironing board, a low "sit-down" board with room underneath for your knees will be very convenient.

A good Sewing Centre can help you do those repair jobs in a jiffy. Your supplies are handy and the job is quickly done.

USING EGGS

The lenten season is the time to use more eggs. Do you cook your eggs properly? A hard cooked egg will be more tender if allowed to cook slowly in water below boiling for at least thirty minutes. Extreme heat toughens egg whites. For soft cooked eggs, allow eight to ten minutes cooking. To remove shells easily and to prevent that blue ring from forming, plunge hard cooked eggs in cool water as soon as cooked. To avoid cracking, when cooking eggs in their shells, place eggs in cool water and bring to a boil.

Keeps eggs in a cool place, preferably the refrigerator and do not keep a large supply on hand. Egg-shell color has nothing to do with the quality of the egg. Yolk color depends on the food given to the hens. Pale yellow or rich golden yolks are equal in quality and food value.

Eggs that are offered for sale must be graded. This is your guide to value so look for the Government Grade Mark.

Watch this column for causes and cures for meringue failures.

BILL RODEBACK

He had been in failing health the past winter and suffered a brain hemorrhage and paralysis recently which became fatal on March 18th. It is believed this was a result of injuries received at the time he was involved in a car accident some time ago.

Bill was predeceased by an infant daughter, Grace, and his first wife Lila who passed away at the birth of their second child, William. In the Cardston Temple he later married Muriel Stevenson who survives him, as well as his son, and three daughters Barbara, Margaret and Mary, and two grandchildren. Also surviving are two brothers, Don of Raymond and Bert of Utah; and four sisters; Almira Hepler of Cut Bank, Montana, Edith Stevens and Roxie Robbins of Salt Lake and Lexie Burton of Cardston.

As the portals of the sun were being drawn for the evening, they interred him where he would want to be—in the family plot near his own people. A man who made friends and possessed the ability to keep them.

CANADIAN GARDEN SERVICE

by Gordon Lindsay Smith

Year Round Enjoyment—Your average European expects to get pleasure or food out of his garden every day in the year. Of course his winters are usually much milder than ours, but we could learn a great deal from these experienced old country people. In far too many cases the Canadian gardener thinks just of a few months in the summer and even less when it comes to vegetables. It's a feast or a famine. A few weeks when the lettuce, spinach and radishes are just right. A few days of feasting on green peas or fresh corn, a little longer for tomatoes perhaps, and cucumbers and melons.

That's pretty wasteful gardening. With the great variety available today, it is possible to spread even relatively short season things like corn, peas and spinach over many weeks. This spreading can be further extended by planting each variety and type at least three times, first earlier than usual, then about the average time and finally two or three weeks later. In this way not only do we get far more volume from our vegetable plots, but far higher quality, too.

The Lawn—In any garden layout the lawn is perhaps the most important feature yet it is often the most neglected. For some reason or other a lot of people seem to think that grass will take care of itself. It will to some extent, if one is satisfied with something about as coarse and tough as fence wire. But fine, all season green and uniform turf, requires some planning and regular maintenance. Without a good piece of lawn as a foreground for shrubbery, vines, flower gardens, paths and buildings, no garden layout, no matter how costly, will be a real success. And it is not really difficult or expensive to create a really good lawn. Here are the major points to keep in mind:

It is much easier to get the ground level and the top soil fine before the lawn is seeded than afterwards, and level and fine it should be for best results in the usual location. On hillsides, slopes should be made as gradual as possible and instead of one long sharp one, two or three levels with terraces, rock gardens of shrubbery and steps in between are advisable.

Use the best seed. Except for very special purposes like putting or bowling greens, the best consists of mixtures of several fine grasses. Some of these come quickly, some do best late in the season, some have richer color and so on. These are blended together to produce uniformity of texture and color throughout the season and for various regions of Canada. Seeding should be done early, before the hot weather, or after it in the fall.

Lawns should be fed, like any other plants. One good application of fertilizer, rich in nitrogen, is advisable every year or so.

First Plantings—Even in the cooler parts of the country the first actual planting are usually carried out in March or earlier. This is the seeding of those things that are usually started in green houses, hotbeds and window sills. Tomatoes, cabbages, petunias, asters, and so on are in this group. Many people don't bother with this first seeding at all, but simply buy the started plants in April or May and set out. Of the first seeds planted directly outside will be the very hardy group of flowers and vegetables, which a bit of frost will not hurt. In this group are sweet peas, cosmos, the first carrots and beets, lettuce, spinach, radish and grass seed.

Then there is the semi-hardy group, which includes the most flowers and the harder vegetables. A touch of frost will not ruin them, though they would prefer to do without.

In the last group are the really tender things that won't stand a single degree below 32. In this category are dahlias, cannas, gladiolus, tomatoes, peppers, melons, cucumbers and sonon.

Hot cereals, especially the whole-grain varieties, are excellent all-the-year-round breakfast foods; the proteins, vitamins and minerals they provide are necessary to good health.

Across Canada from Grosse Isle to Kyauquot

Where the mighty St. Lawrence flows into the sea, a group of islands stand sentinel. Furthestmost is Grosse Isle, and here, the Red Cross flag flies over an Outpost Hospital.

Stretching westward as far as Kyauquot on the Pacific Ocean, 82 Red Cross Outpost Hospitals and Nursing Stations serve the new frontiers and remote areas of Canada. They are established in the scattered settlements of Canada's remote frontiers where populations are too small to support resident medical services. And where, in cases of childbirth, sickness or accident the nearest doctor may be too far away to arrive in time to help.

An old fashioned Shingling Bee went on at the Walt Piegrass home last night when their son Bert and Mrs. Shirley King bridge and sons-in-law, J. B. Gillespie and Clifford Brown of Bow Island and Sweet Grass got together to do the job. Their wives enjoyed a good visit together while the men were laboring.

The blizzard Saturday evening couldn't spoil the gay dinner party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Shirley King when a delicious turkey dinner was served to a number of friends followed by an evening of Rook. Although every one enjoyed themselves, Arledge Hill took home the prize for High Score.
